

The Provincial Library Blairmore Graphic

BLAIRMORE, ALBERTA, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1948.

$2.00 PER ANNUM.

40th YEAR, NO. 38.

Blairmore Students Awarded Scholarships

Alberta winners of the $200 teacher scholarships were released by the department of education several days ago. First payment of $100 will be made in October and second in January, 1949.

Scholarships were awarded to the following pupils from the Crows' Nest Pass and district: Margaret Kathleen Davidson and Barbara Frances Millett, all of Blairmore; Ann Elizabeth Birrell, Beaver Mines, and Gordon Max Pharis, Tod Creek.

HILLCREST UNITED CHURCH HARVEST FESTIVAL

An array of garden flowers, fresh fruits and vegetables, home canned fruits, etc., was displayed in the United church on Sunday, Sept. 12, when a special harvest festival service was held. The pastor, Mr. Kay, chose for his text Psalm 116, verse 12: "What shall I render unto the Lord, for all his benefits toward me?"

Special music for the occasion was a string quartet consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tracy (of Kingston, Ontario), Mrs. R. Burgman and Mr. W. H. Moeser. They played "Cradle Song" by Petter.

A birthday party was held on Friday, Sept. 10, in honor of little Don Amatto. There was quite a number of his little playmates present to help him eat all the goodies and ice cream his Mommy had prepared for them. The children all wore little paper hats as they played their games. The children had their picture taken and then helped Donny open his gifts. He especially thanked them all and then they departed.

"Serve the Church that the Church May Serve You!"

CENTRAL UNITED CHURCH BLAIRMORE

Rev. T. R. Haythorne, Minister

Services Sunday next:

- 11:00 a.m., Senior school.
- 2:00 p.m., Junior school.
- 7:30 p.m., Public Worship.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH, BLAIRMORE

(Anglican)

Rev. A. G. Dewdney, M.A., B.D., Rector.

Confirmation Classes every Wednesday afternoon in the Parish Hall:

Young people 4:10 p.m.

Adults 5:00 p.m.

SALVATION ARMY, COLEMAN

Lieuts. E. Burkholder & R. Chapman Officers in charge.

Sunday services:

- 11 a.m., Holiness meeting.
- 2:30 p.m., Directory class.
- 3:00 p.m., Sunday school.
- 7:30 p.m., Evangelistic meeting.

Tuesday:

- 7:30 p.m., Women's meeting.
- Thursday: 8 p.m., Midweek service.
- All welcome.

CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER DAY SAINTS

Blairmore

Elders K. A. Jarvis and C. H. Despain in charge.

Sunday services at 8 p.m. in the Union Hall.

The public is cordially invited.

New Phone Service For Crows' Nest Pass

The old Alexander Graham Bell originals will soon be removed from homes and business places in the Crows' Nest Pass Word is to hand that the Alberta Government Telephones plan to put in three new automatic exchanges in the Pass which will serve all points in the vicinity as far east as Burmis.

Tenders were closed in Edmonton recently for the construction of telephone buildings at Coleman and Bellevue, and an addition to the present building in Blairmore. No announcement has yet been made on the successful contracting firm.

It is expected that the Blairmore exchange will be a central office while those in Coleman and Bellevue will be completely automatic.

The service will be much improved over the present system in the opinion of the Lethbridge plant superintendent. At present he said, there is great difficulty taking care of the excessive demand in the Crows' Nest area.

Details of the system have not yet been released. It is understood, however, that the new service will benefit all the towns in the district.

LDS Start Sunday School Services

The Blairmore Sunday school of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints held its first regular weekly service on September 12 in the Union hall at 10:30 a.m. This first service of the Blairmore Sunday school coincided with the worldwide enlistment program of the Sunday school of the church. The goal of the church is 500,000 members in the Sunday schools by 1949, which is the Sunday school centennial year. Just two years after the arrival of the first pioneers in Salt Lake valley, Utah, in 1847, Richard Ballantyne organized the Sunday school of the church.

Mills Johnson was chosen to be the superintendent of the Blairmore Sunday school by the president of the Western Canada Mission, Glen G. Fisher. Glen K. Bateman was chosen to be the first counselor and Elder Claude H. Desplain the second counselor. Teachers and other necessary officers have been chosen to complete the organization of the local school.

Under the direction of Mrs. Holly Fisher, president of the Western Canadian mission relief society and primary, Mrs. Norma Johnson was sustained to continue as president of the Blairmore relief society, with Mrs. Fay Gibson and Mrs. Lillian Fisher as counselors. To assist Mrs. Kay Bateman in the primary organization, Betty Johnson has been chosen.

An outstanding year is anticipated by the members and officers of each of these organizations.

When the visiting mission authorities visited Blairmore recently, they were greeted by a large congregation. Pres. Jacob P. Burton, of the Calgary district, reminded the people that "to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams." Mrs. Holly Fisher emphasized the importance of love in the home and among one's neighbors, while Pres. Glen G. Fisher clearly proclaimed the personality of God as a personal being.

The regular Sunday evening church services will continue under direction of Elders K. A. Jarvis and C. H. Desplain. The public is cordially invited each Sunday evening at 8 p.m. in the Union hall.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Dutchie and family of Lethbridge and Mrs. C. Kelly of Pincher Creek were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lance Morgan recently.

Ratepayers Air Grievances, Special Meeting

A meeting of the Ratepayers of Blairmore was held on Tuesday, September 14, in the Union hall in regards to the condition of the newly laid hard-surfaced streets. A petition was largely signed asking the mayor and council to meet the ratepayers at a special meeting and the date was decided by the first idle day at the meetings of the week of Sept. 13.

Delbert Ennis was appointed chairman and Harold Marks secretary. The secretary then read the complaints in the petition and after specific instances were stated by some of the ratepayers attending the meeting, the mayor launched into a warm defence of the matter of the streets.

He claimed that in some places in the town the streets did not match with his approval as they were quite dusty and that the asphalt had not worked to the top or absorbed the top dressing. This was pointed out to the superintendent of the construction company that had been appointed to do the work and had the company's assurance that the streets would be put in such shape as would meet the approval of the mayor and council.

Approximately five and one half miles of our streets had been hard-surfaced at an approximate cost of $26,000 and quite a substantial portion of this amount was still due to the construction company and would not be paid until the streets were approved by the mayor and council. Mr. Williams also stated that the ratepayers had no need for worry as their interests were being safeguarded.

A motion was passed by the meeting placing confidence in the mayor and council.

There was also considerable discussion over the collection of garbage. It was pointed out that although the householders were assessed a special garbage fee every month, some sections of the town had not had any garbage removed from their back yards for several months. The mayor informed the meeting that every effort had been made to keep the town clean and healthy looking. The only trouble is that the council cannot find a reliable driver that will work steadily on the job. They have put the town truck to work and have extra help in an endeavor to do a satisfactory job, it will take them at least four months to clear the rubbish and ash piles away.

The mayor also informed the meeting what has been accomplished in having a new bridge placed over the Crows' Nest river to replace the one lost in the flood several months ago. As soon as material has been ordered for the new bridge arrives work will commence immediately.

Shortly after the meeting the mayor informed the ratepayers on other necessary work that has been accomplished by the town during the year. Several feet of new water mains have been laid near the Blairmore dam and some five thousand feet will be laid shortly on Victoria Avenue where there is a yearly expense of broken mains. He also stated that negotiations had been entered into with the provincial government regarding the dredging of the Crows' Nest river, but as yet no agreement had materialized from these negotiations.

There was also a discussion regarding the public school building which was damaged by fire last June. Certain repair work had not been done and some criticism was leveled at the board for not having the school completely ready for the opening of the fall term.

Mr. Bannan made a vigorous defense of the school board, claiming that every effort had been put forth to have this work done before school commenced, but stated that the contractor engaged to do the work failed to do it in the time specified.

Mr. Bannan stated that the cost of a new school would be in the neighborhood of $200,000, which would increase the mill rate by 20 mills, and he was of the opinion that the necessary

COWLEY HAPPENINGS

Miss Irene Burwell has gone to Brandon where she will train for a nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. Colvin of Kimberley, BC, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Colvin's sister, Mrs. Ida Irwin.

The harvesting of spring wheat is in full way here now. Most of the farmers are resorting to swathing, following later with the pickup and combine. In this way they save the possible shattering of grain by strong winds.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Peterson of Hesketh were weekend guests at the parental home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hewitt, in the Porcupine Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Houst of Indian, who are on a motor holiday trip through Canada, made a stopover here to pay a visit to Mr. and Mrs. George Scott and family this week. The Housts have toured every State in the United States and they have visited Old Mexico also.

Harvest home services were held in the United church here on Sunday, Sept. 19, at 2:30 p.m. with Mr. J. C. Kay of Bellevue in charge. Special efforts are being made to bring the people together on this sacred day to express their thanks by bringing gifts, which will be parcelled and sent to needy peoples overseas.

George Baker of Macleod was up this week, visiting old friends here.

Doctor and Mrs. McMath of Gardena, California, are on their annual motor trip to Alberta. They are now visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Veitch in the Porcupine Hills.

Albert Cleland is in the lead this year in combining spring wheat in this district, having begun on Friday, September 17.

Mrs. Edith Smyth has returned from a week visit with relatives in Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jordan had as essary two-third majority of the ratepayers on a plebiscite to spend this amount of money would not forthcoming.

After this discussion it was decided to leave the question of creating a new school building in the hands of the trustees.

Vets Get Extra Hour to Buy Beer

Veterans' clubs will benefit by a new liquor control board regulation which enables such premises to keep open for the sale of beer until 11 p.m. instead of the present 10 p.m.

This regulation gives the veterans' clubs the right, subject to application to the board. The 11 p.m. closing hour was a privilege of all licensed clubs until the war and rationing brought a 10 p.m. closing hour into effect.

Acting in co-operation with various branches of the Legion, the provincial command made representation to the government this spring to restore the privilege of the 11 p.m. closing hour. Applications by non-veteran club had not been received, but would be considered if they were.

We understand that the local branch of the Legion has made formal application for this privilege.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Blake and children are guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Ottewell, at Vulcan. Mr. Blake will journey on to Edmonton where he will continue his studies at the University of Alberta.

Guests this week Mrs. Jordan's sister, Mrs. A. E. Savor, and her two small sons, of the RCAF station at Trenton, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Millward of Ottawa, Ontario, are paying a visit this week to their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Gray Campbell, at their home in the Porcupine Hills.

Mrs. Gerhart Froese and Mrs. Helmut Wende, new brides, were honored guests at an afternoon tea sponsored by Mrs. Maurice Lemire and Mrs. Nick Papp, held at the home of Mrs. Lemire on Friday, Sept. 17.

Mrs. Edith Smyth was present with her new husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gray Campbell, at their home in the Porcupine Hills.

Word is received that a son is born to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wheatcroft in Calgary, Mrs. Wheatcroft will be remembered as Muri Smyth.

A large congregation was in attendance on Sunday afternoon, when the Harvest Home service was held in the United church here. The offering of gifts in the line of food stuff was responded to most generously, the lot of which will be parcelled and sent to the Crippled Children's Home in Calgary and to needy people in Scotland. The church was beautifully decorated with garden flowers and sheaves of grain, together with the display of gifts, certainly bespeaks a land of plenty with an abounding spirit of generosity. Special musical numbers were rendered by a quartet, Mr. Arthur Tustian and Mrs. Alvin Murphy, violins; Mr. Harry Kirk, cello, with Mrs. A. Tustian, pianist, and Rev. J. C. Kay, vocalist.

On Monday afternoon, the Cowley Ladies Aid and Rev. Mr. J. C. Kay and Mrs. Kay of Bellevue met in the United church here when they packed the gifts of the Harvest Home for shipment, as follows: eight 20-pound boxes of miscellaneous articles of concentrated foods to the Ladies Aid at Loanhead, Scotland, and at Belston, Scotland; four boxes for distribution to needy families at each of these points. The Cowley school sent 20 pounds of chocolate bars for distribution among children at each of the two points mentioned above, also and in addition special gift boxes of food were sent to Mr. Kay's father, Mr. W. Kay, and to Mrs. Kay's brother, Mr. Arthur Grant, both of Loanhead, Scotland. Six packing cases of miscellaneous articles of food stuffs and one sack of vegetables were sent to the Crippled Children's Home in Calgary. The Cowley Junior Red Cross also donated a packing case of articles of food to the Crippled Children's Home, Calgary.

Trapshooter from all parts of Alberta will converge on Calgary Sep. 29 and 30 and October 1 to largest shoot being staged in the province this year.

The trapshooting competition in the Calgary Gun Club's Southern Alberta Merchandise Shoot will be the highlight of the tournament, with the Calgary Herald Trapshooting Championship with the Herald Rose Bowl at stake.

The Herald Rose Bowl event will be open to residents of Southern Alberta only with Red Deer being the northern boundary and the international border being the southern. Besides the Herald trophy there will be the Commonwealth Petrolume

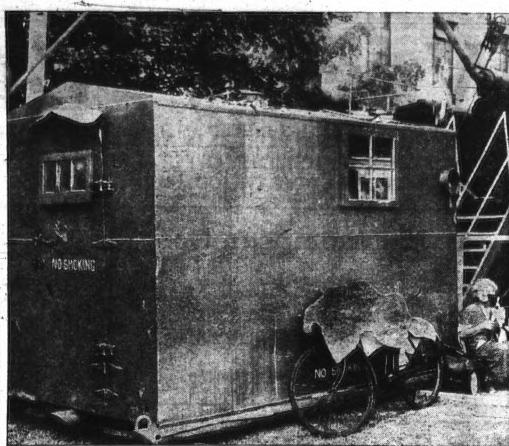

World News In Pictures

FRUIT FARMER ON WAY TO MARKET, HALTED BY DEATH—Twisted wreckage of his truck lies beside sheet-covered body of George Campbell, 72, Jordan district fruit farmer, after C.N.R. freight hurled truck 60 feet down track at Vineland, Ont. Mr. Campbell, seen inset, was on way to market with a load of peaches.—S.N.S. Photo.

FIVE POUND TROUT, FIVE YEAR RECORD—A proud fisherman displays the five-pound, one-ounce, speckled trout he pulled out of Black Lake, near Mt. St. Patrick. It is said to be the largest taken from the lake in five years.—S.N.S. Photo.

EVICTED FAMILY GIVEN SHELTER—Evicted from army barracks by the city of Toronto, the family of Archibald Widdowson was given shelter in this tool hut by a visiting Alberta oil driller. Hut sheltered grandmother, Mrs. H. King, the parents, their three children.—S.N.S. Photo.

BEEF BY TRUCKLOADS GO TO U.S. AS EMBARGO LIFTED—One steer takes a last look at Canada as customs agent R. McCann and driver Max Petchesky inspect truckload of cattle going over border at Windsor to U.S. market. Truck after truck headed for border with choice Canadian beef after embargo was lifted.—S.N.S. Photo.

KILLED BY BULLET—Fleeing from police in Hamilton, Ont., Frank W. Williams and Tom Forrest was killed by a police bullet in a chase through city streets in which at least 10 shots were fired. He dropped dead in his car before reaching hospital. He was wanted for questioning in connection with a $12,000 Oshawa, Ont., robbery.—S.N.S. Photo.

ANOTHER HIGHWAY ACCIDENT VICTIM—Body of Mrs. Alexander Blake, North Plainfield, N.J., lies beside wreckage of car wedged against badly-damaged truck after collision on No. 2 highway near Bowmanville, Ont. Her husband, the driver, suffered minor hurts. Police said car veered from traffic line.—S.N.S. Photo.

CANADIAN BOYS EXHIBIT MODEL PLANES IN U.S.—Five Canadian model plane enthusiasts are seen at the U.S. Naval Air Station, Olathe, Kan., where they arrived for the 17th national model airplane meet. From left, Alan Leslie, Walter Gaud, Dan Norton, a station officer; Norman McKay and Don Turner of Toronto. Quintet displays model planes.—S.N.S. Photo.

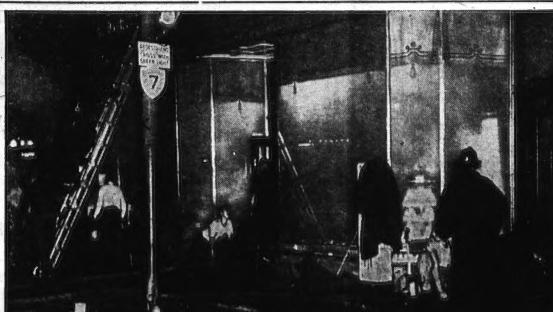

HEADY HOME DESIGN WASHINGTON TOPPER—Dreamed up by a Washington designer, this beauifully beaded and jeweled crown design, is modeled by Jo Mette. Called the "national home week hat", it was created for the event, Sept. 5-11, at the annual meeting of the Association of Home Builders in the U.S.—S.N.S. Photo.

WHAT AN OCCASION FOR TEARS, MISS CANADA!—So happy because she was chosen "Miss Canada" in Hamilton, Ont., pretty Betty Jean Ferguson, Halifax, sheds real tears during the crowning ceremony. "I'm so happy," she said, after being showered with gifts and awards. "It's like Christmas Eve."—S.N.S. Photo.

FIRE CAUSES 13 FIREMEN CASUALTIES—Smoke victim, Fireman Healy, is given a drink by a volunteer worker. Fire was controlled in four hours but firemen were on job all night. $150,000 fire in the S. S. Krebs store on main street of Peterboro sent 18 firemen to hospital before it was brought under control. Seven were released shortly and most of the casualties were victims of exhaustion or smoke. Here firemen battle the night-long blaze.—S.N.S. Photo.

HARVEY MURPHY'S NAME

(F.J.S. in Cranbrook Courier)
Labor Leader Harvey Murphy, who has been figuring prominently in the news at the coast, is no stranger to Cranbrook, Fernie, Kimberley and other Crown' Next towns. Back in the Federal election of June 11, 1945, he ran as a Labor candidate for Kootenay East, but held fourth place when the votes were counted.

But to get back to our friend Murphy, who has just been suspended as a member of the CCL. Murphy is president of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers for British Columbia.

Born Poland in 1905, he has spent his entire adult life in Canada. He has been an active organizer among miners in British Columbia and Alberta since 1932.

Murphy's Polish name is Chernikovsky, but he apparently had it changed to the good old Irish name of Murphy after coming to Canada. From what we can gather he attended the Lenin Institute in Moscow for the dissemination of Marxian propaganda, a statement he has never denied. He is quite an intelligent and likeable fellow, and handles himself well on a public platform.

J. Davies of Bellevue has left for Red Deer where he will attend school for the coming term.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Turner and family visited in Calgary over the Labor Day holiday.

Weekly Business Review

THE BUSINESS FIRMS LISTED IN THIS DIRECTORY REPRESENT LIVE, UP-TO-DATE CONCERN THAT INVITE YOUR PATRONAGE. THE SERVICE WHICH THEY OFFER IS OF THE BEST AND DEALING WITH THEM NOT ONLY GIVES SATISFACTION BUT ASSISTS IN HELPING THEM SERVE THE COMMUNITY BETTER. TRY THEM WHEN YOU HAVE NEEDS TO BE SATISFIED.

F. M. Thompson Co.

"The Busy Corner Store"

Everything to EatEverything to Wear

Main Store, Phone 15 & 25

Greenhill Store, Phone 28

SARTORIS MOTORS

Charles Sartoris, Prop.

INTERNATIONAL TRUCKS
SALES & SERVICE

McCOLL-FRONTENAC PRODUCTS

Phone 100

BLAIRMORE

ALBERTA

Blairmore Motors

Charles Sartoris, Prop.

CHRYSLER & PLYMOUTH
SALES & SERVICE

IMPERIAL OIL PRODUCTS

Phone 43

BLAIRMORE

Thornton & SonsHardware*Furniture*Sporting Goods*Radios*Radio Repairs*Tinsmithing*Furnaces Installed

Phone 19

Blairmore

Alberta

The Family Shoe Store
"Quality Shoes and Hosiery"

Headquarters for:

GRACELINE SHOES
FOR LADIES*PARIS LOGGER and MINE BOOTS

Phone 325 — BLAIRMORE, Alta.

Blairmore Pharmacy

Gordon Steves, Prop.

Your "REXALL" Store

PRESCRIPTIONS CAREFULLY
DISPENSED

DRUGS — TOILETRIES

Phone 110 — BLAIRMORE, Alta.

The Pass Beauty Salon

Sophie Kubic, Prop.

Specializing in Hair Styling
and

All Lines of Beauty Culture

For Permanency in Permanent Waves

Phone 216 — BLAIRMORE, Alta.

Blairmore Hardware Co.

GENERAL HARDWARE

CROCKERY

SATIN-GLO and BAPO PAINTS

Phone 142 — BLAIRMORE, Alta.

HARRY'S Red & White Store

QUALITY GROCERIES

FRESH and FROZEN FRUITS

VEGETABLES

— Free Delivery —

Phone 24 — BLAIRMORE, Alta.

The Blairmore Exchange

W. L. Evans, Prop.

NEW AND SECOND-HAND
FURNITURE, Etc.

Drop in and Look Around

Phone 156 — BLAIRMORE, Alta.

OLIVER'S TRANSFERIMPERIAL OIL AGENT

Distributor For

ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR
PURITY FLOUR

Phone 149 — BLAIRMORE, Alta.

SARTORIS LUMBER COMPANY

Lumber from our own Sawmill

BUILDING MATERIAL

GENERAL CONTRACTING

Mine Timber of All Kinds

Phone 353 — BLAIRMORE, Alta.

Fidenato & DeCilia

A business that is steadily growing after thirty years of service to their customers is a sure sign that the owners are wide-aware and giving the best in quality and service. That is the proud record of Fidenato & DeCilia, in Maple Leaf, who established their business in 1918. The partners in this firm, Messrs. S. Fidenato and T. DeCilia, are to be commended on the modern and efficient manner in which they conduct their business.

Fidenato & DeCilia carry a complete line of quality groceries, imported and domestic produce, dry goods and shoes. The quality of their merchandise is never questioned, and they sell at prices that can't be beat. The store is modern in all departments and food is handled only by a staff that guards your health in cleanliness. You'll find pleasure in shopping at this busy food centre.

Messrs. Fidenato & DeCilia have had many years experience in this business and the friendly and courteous atmosphere of the store is the reflection of their genuine desire to render a real service to the community.

Elsewhere on this page will be found the advertisement of this firm, and readers will doubtless wish to note

Agents
The Blairmore Graphic

SIMPLY DELICIOUS!

The Superb flavor of Maxwell House makes it the most popular of all brands of coffee. It has extra flavor because it contains choice Latin-American coffees.

Cosmopolitan Hotel

Wm. Rusnak, Mgr.

THE PASS COMMERCIAL HOUSE

Your Comfort is Our Concern.

Phone 183 — BLAIRMORE, Alta.

Crows Nest Pass Motors*OLDSMOBILE and CHEVROLET

SALES and SERVICE

Goodrich Tires

BLAIRMORE — ALTA.

JOE'S AUTO BODY AND FENDER WORKS

Ulrich Bros., Prop.

EXPORT BODY REPAIRS and REFINISHING

Studebaker Sales and Service

Phone 1 — BLAIRMORE, Alta.

Britannia Paint WorksG. K. SIRETT &
DAUGHTER*Painting*Decorating*Paperhanging

Phone 169 —

Bellevue — Alberta

Reid's Men's Shop

F. A. Reid, Prop.

"House of Stone"

MADE-TO-MEASURE CLOTHES

STETSON HATS

B.V.D. DRESS SHIRTS

BLAIRMORE — ALTA.

MR. MERCHANT

Everybody would read
your message if you
would place it here

Paula's Style Wear

"Styles As You Like Them"

A Select Range of

SPRING COATS

For Your Approval

Stores of

BELLEVUE and BLAIRMORE

Hillcrest Trading Co.

John Lipnicka, Prop.

Groceries - Meats - Provisions

Dry Goods - Boots and Shoes

Shelf Hardware

Phone 26J — HILLCREST, Alta.

MEET YOUR FRIENDS ATTHE*FRANK HOTEL

Steve Bobrosky, Prop.

FRANK — ALBERTA

Don't forget we haveA RESORT

right here in the Pass

Direct Friends and Tourists

toTURTLE MOUNTAIN

PLAYGROUNDS

SWIMMING — DINING

DANCING — CABINS

FRANK — ALBERTA

Trail Rides, Pack Trips, etc.

The Variety Shop

Richard H. Crobb, Prop.

Show Gift Suggestions:

English Bone China

Cups and Saucers

Devon Ware China Figures

Novelty Salt and Pepper

English Tea Towels

BLAIRMORE — ALTA.

THERE IS A PLACE LIKEHOME IN BELLEVUE

IT'S

The Bellevue Inn

Bellevue Hardware

Ralph Nunn, Prop.

ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES

FURNITURE - SPORTING GOODS

C.I.L. PAINTS

Phone 188-J — BELLEVUE, Alta.

Fidenato & DeCilia

Dealers in

GROCERIES, IMPORTED and

DOMESTIC PRODUCE

DRY GOODS, BOOTS and SHOES

Phone 232M — MAPLE LEAF, Alta.

PATON'S Baking Service

R. Y. Paton, Prop.

"We Bake Up to a Standard

Not Down to a Price!"

Phone 74-W — BELLEVUE, Alta.

Bellevue Pharmacy

A. G. Hayson, Prop.

PRESCRIPTION SPECIALISTS

DRUGS — SUNDRIES

MAGAZINES - TOBACCOES

Phone 10F — BELLEVUE, Alta.

BELLEVUE MOTORS

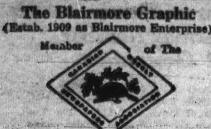

J. H. Green, Prop.

DODGE and DeSOTO

SALES and SERVICE

Bear Frame, Axle and Steering
Service

Phone 29-W — BELLEVUE, Alta.

Alberta Weekly Newspapers Assn.
Newspaper Advertising Bureau

Authorized as Second-Class Mail by the Post Office Department, Ottawa.

Office of Publication
BLAIRMORE, ALBERTA

Subscription to all parts of the Dominion, $2.00 per annum; United States and Great Britain, $2.50;
Foreign, $3.00, payable in advance.

Business, local, 15¢ per line.

Legislative notices, 15¢ per line for first insertion, 12¢ per line for each subsequent insertion.

Obituary notices, inserted free of charge, but lists of floral offerings charged at 10 cents per line.

Display advt. rates on application.

J. R. MCLEOD, PUBLISHER

Blairmore, Alta., Fri., Sept. 17, 1948.

Ilsley Joins Royal Bank Directorate

Appointment of the Rt. Hon. J. L. Ilsley, PC, KC, as a director of The Royal Bank of Canada is announced. Finance minister for the Dominion throughout the war years, Mr. Ilsley will bring to the councils of The Royal Bank of Canada one of the keenest financial and legal minds in the country. It was on Mr. Ilsley's shoulders that the onerous duty of organizing Canada's wartime financial structure fell in July, 1940, when he became minister of finance in Canada's wartime cabinet. Mobilization of the financial resources of the country for a supreme war effort, and direction of national policy in the field of finance throughout the war years became his responsibility. Organization of the succeeding Victory Loan campaigns, the control of inflation and the diversion of the nation's financial resources to war production, all came under his jurisdiction. It was not until 1946 that he relinquished his portfolio as minister of finance to accept appointment as minister of justice for the Dominion, a post he held until his retirement from active politics in July of this year.

Mr. Ilsley was first elected to the Canadian House of Commons in the general election of 1926 as member for Hants-Kings. He was re-elected in the general election of 1930 and again in 1935, on the latter occasion as member for the newly created district of Digby-Annapolis-Kings. He was sworn of the Privy Council and appointed minister of national revenue in the third government of the Rt. Hon. W. L. M. King in 1935.

Reserve force soldiers of the Royal Canadian Electrical and Mechanical Engineers learn a lot about mobile equipment they use in their work at their local headquarters, but only at a big camp like that operated at Wainwright by Western Army Command, can they get unlimited practical driving experience.

These four men from Blairmore detachment, RCEME, came from Cole-

A Nova Scotian by birth, Mr. Ilsley gained his early education in the public schools of that province. He graduated from Acadia University as a Bachelor of Arts, and later took his degree as Doctor of Civil Law from the same institution. He also holds the degrees of Bachelor of Laws and Doctor of Laws from Dalhousie University and Doctor of Laws from McGill and McMaster. He received his early law training in Kentville, Nova Scotia; was called to the bar of that town in 1916, and practiced law at Kentville and Halifax until 1935. He was created Kings Counsel in 1928. Since his retirement from the political scene, Mr. Ilsley has been senior partner in the Montreal law firm of Ilsley, Kearney, Banquet and McKay, a position formerly held by his friend and close political colleague, the late J. L. Ralston.

Pass Tourist Season

(Lethbridge Herald)

Hotels and tourist camps throughout the Crows' Nest Pass are filled to capacity as the tourist season reaches its peak in the Pass area, according to the hotelmen and camp operators.

Busiest town is Blairmore where trailers in two camps display a variety of license plates from the United States and Canada. Trailers park for the night or a few weeks in the shade of Turtle mountain, and have a view of cool Crows' Nest mountain in the distance.

A show town of the Pass is Blairmore, which confines its business area to its coal mine on a mountain-side behind the town. Residents point with pride to their recently paved streets which help keep the town free of dust.

Bellevue and Coleman also have their coal mines, but they are more prominently displayed. Coleman has the added attraction of coke ovens just off main street. The sight of burning coke at night has startled more than one newcomer to the Pass.

Naked boulders, some as large as 20 tons, roll down the hillside—a political scene, Mr. Ilsley has been a leader which occurred in 1903 when part

At Crows' Nest, near the British Columbia border, Crows' Nest Lake reflects its own mountain in deep and cool waters. Vacationers may dine, dance, fish and hunt, or pitch a tent beside the lake.

Like Banff, the Crows' Nest Pass area has its own sulphur springs, at Frank. With heated water for swimming, visitors to the Turtle Mountain rendezvous may also dance and dine in the same building.

Residents of the towns of Bellevue, Hillcrest, Frank, Blairmore, Coleman and Crows' Nest claim that scenery in the Pass is "just as good as at Banff." They hasten to add that it is "not commercialized."

Miss Frances Cardle of Bellevue has left for Calgary where she will study music.

Miss H. Rhodes of Calgary spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Rhodes, at Bellevue.

I WANT TO KNOW

Am I too old to buy life insurance?

The middle-aged man who asked this question feared that at his age the cost of life insurance would be prohibitive... but even were he much older, Mutual low-cost life insurance would still prove good business.

Unfortunately many people realize the importance of life insurance only when through age or other disability they are no longer able to secure it. A life insurance programme should be started as early in life as possible.

Consult your Mutual Life of Canada man today.

Providing life insurance service since 1869

MUTUAL LIFE

HEAD OFFICE
WATERLOO, ONT.

FRANK J. LAMEY

District Representative

Kubik Block Phones 46 & 147

DRINK a PEPSI

...today, and often every day.

It's a real treat anytime.

Pepsi's quick delicious flavor really satisfies your thirst, doesn't just tease it. So whenever you're thirsty, drink a Pepsi.

"Pepsi-Cola" and "Pepsi" are the registered trade marks in Canada of Pepsi-Cola Company of Canada, Limited.

There's a Future For You IN THE Canadian Army Active Force

If you are between 17 and 25 years of age, the Canadian Army offers you a career of adventure and security along with thousands of other young Canadians who are serving today in uniform. The King's uniform, that you will be proud to wear.

Take your choice! Do you like to organize and direct . . . would you like to learn a useful trade . . . or, perhaps you like the outdoor activities with action aplenty? There's opportunity unlimited in the Canadian Army Active Force, including advancement to commissioned rank, if you have what it takes.

The Canadian Army Active Force offers opportunities for service . . . and more opportunities for you than ever before. To complete the picture you are assured of a lifetime pension when your service is completed. Ask your nearest Reserve Force unit for enlistment particulars.

There's the Reserve for those who wish to serve, to learn a trade and share in the fellowship and advantages of Army life, but are unable to go Active. Ask for details today at your nearest Armoury.

For a Lifetime of Comradeship and Security

JOIN
THE CANADIAN ARMY ACTIVE FORCE
NOW!

Alberta's own
50,000 watt station provides the finest radio facilities
for the foothills province

New and stronger radio voice will now serve Alberta, carrying the radio programs from all across the country, right in the middle of today's radio picture. CBX is your own station, all its power, all its facilities, built for the people of the Foothills Province . . . concentrated on bringing to every Albertan home a program of news, music, information and all-round entertainment which will make the new CBX a milestone in Alberta's radio history.

CBX
Alberta
Broadcasting Corporation

CARRYING COMPLETE TRANS-CANADA NETWORK PROGRAMS

Your New Outfit
from EATON'S

LIKE STEPPING FROM A FASHION MAGAZINE!

In your new Catalogue,
choose from:

- The New silhouettes — fitted or sweeping!
- The glowing "Victorian" colors — Fall-important!
- Co-ordinated accessories in modern mood!
- all priced in the thrifty EATON tradition that stretches every dollar.

T. EATON CO.

EATON'S

WORLD HAPPENINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

Secretary-General Trygve Lie has asked for $33,669,587 to operate the United Nations in 1949.

Saskatchewan, Canada's chief sunflower seed growing province, produced 20,000,000 lbs. in 1947.

The United Nations economic and social council voted to wind up the UN appeal for children by year-end. Contributions thus far have reached $16,000,000.

Cyril Kirby Toren of Vancouver was the western Canada theatre conference's 1948 playwriting competition, Prof. Kenneth Gordon, conference secretary-treasurer announced.

The Fraser river salmon catch this year will not meet earlier expectations, fishermen predicted. A spokesman said that the anticipated 3,000,000 salmon now will not likely exceed 200,000 to 700,000.

When a baseball from the park across the street smashed her front window, a Vancouver housewife objected. She got this advice from the ball players: "Move your house back—it's in the way."

All poultry meats and eggs sold on Canadian farms or markets produced by urban and rural dwellers were valued at more than $235 million in 1947. In 1946, the comparable figure was $203 million.

A British Overseas Airways Corporation Liberator recently was compelled by the weather to climb 18,000 feet to contact an air tanker of Flying Service Limited. At this record height the plane took on 350 gallons of fuel.

No Shortage Of Turkeys

OTTAWA.—Canada's supplies of turkeys are normal, officials of the agriculture department said.

They were confident on a Washington basis that turkey supplies in the United States will be scarcer and prices higher during the November Thanksgiving season.

Canada now has about 3,300,000 pounds in storage, officials said, with new supplies expected to come in the next month. Supply falls off at Christmas.

Canadians do not lean heavily to turkeys as the "Thanksgiving" dish in the U.S. Here, the big market is at Christmas.

Considerable quantities of turkey will be available for export to the U.S. It was stated that no more are moving. Dressed birds are going out in carload lots, and British Columbia and central Canada also are shipping out sizable numbers of birds for breeding.

KITCHEN MEDITATIONS

Harvest Thanks

By JANE DALE

My grateful heart sends forth to Thee in words of deep humility.

A song of thanks I have learned to sing and tree and vine once more.

May I abundant blessings share

With Thy poor people everywhere.

My grateful heart sends forth to Thee A prayer for all humanity; Regardless of their race or creed, May they from hunger soon be freed.

Use them, Lord, Thy blessings pour

And give them too, abundant store.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By WILLIAM FEIGUSON

HUMMINGBIRDS ARE LESS THAN FOUR INCHES IN LENGTH AND WEIGH ONLY A FEW OUNCES, BUT THEY CAN FLY 1,000 MILES ACROSS THE GULF OF MEXICO DURING MIGRATION.

COR. 1948 BY REA SERVICE INC./L.A. 6000

Diving Dots

In case while having a long nap, and wake up and say, "Start!" says Anna Briley Carter, Rosemary, Ohio.

The Home Islands of Japan

Have a total area equal to that of the State of Montana.

—by

Attended With The Alberta Editors

Many of the editors attending the Alberta Weekly Newspaper convention recently held at Calgary took their wives and families with them, and while the men were in sessions tours were arranged for the ladies to some of Calgary's industrial plants, and from reports these were immensely enjoyed. The above picture was taken during a tour.

Metal Discovery Means Considerable Development In Peace River Area

EDMONTON.—Discovery of substantial deposits of lead, zinc or other base metals in the Great Slave Lake area would mean considerable development to the Yellowknife and Peace River districts and northern British Columbia, Resources Minister Mackinnon said.

Canada Second
In Providing Haven
For Displaced Persons

GENEVA.—Britain absorbed nearly three times more refugees and displaced persons during the last 12 months than any other country, the International Refugee Organization reported.

Some 203,000 refugees resettled in new homes, Britain admitted 69,788. Canada was second with 25,244 persons admitted in the same period.

The refugees were mostly Poles, Russians, Yugoslavs, Balts and Germans. The resettled Germans and Jews or victims of Nazi persecution.

Refugees were resettled in 73 countries on five continents, but 77 per cent. went to only six countries. The total number cared for by I.R.O. dropped from 704,000 the year from 704,000 to 506,000.

Bulgaria admitted 19,147, the United States 16,826, France 16,216, Argentina 12,161, Palestine 6,741, Venezuela 5,666, Australia 5,632, Brazil 3,491, The Netherlands 3,488, Paraguay 2,832, Sweden 1,943, Chile 1,473 and Peru 1,282.

More than 51,000 displaced persons were returned to their former homes, mostly in Eastern Europe, with nearly three-fifths going to Poland.

BOLT OF LIGHTNING HAD QUITE A SPEE

AUDUBON, N.J.—A bolt of lightning bounced crazily between two houses here yesterday. However, it injured no one. After striking a second-floor window, the bolt glanced off into a first-floor diet kitchen where it upset a pot of soup and knocked a spoon out of the hand of the woman who was stirring it.

LITTLE THETFORD, Eng. — The Queen Mother Mary was picked up by a police pugil recently.

She was being driven by her attendant Dame Freda from Cambridge when the car developed engine trouble near this village.

A police car took the Queen Mother into Cambridge, where she visited an antique shop and then was driven back to Sandringham in another car.

WETTEST PLACE IN WORLD

Waialeale Mountain in the Hawallian Islands is believed the wettest place in the world, with an average of 460 inches of rain a year.

Interviewed on his return from a visit to Yellowknife, Mr. Mackinnon said much would depend on the success of a recently-announced exploration program in the area by the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada and Ventures Ltd.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

The two firms have reserved a large area on the south shore of Great Slave Lake near Hay River, on which they propose to spend a large sum in the next three years.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large dam and extension of mining facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY

NO FORTUNE WANTED

THIS long, sleek red roadster turned into the gas station and stopped at the nearest pump. Don Nichols, his face begrimed with grease, and his hands black from using oily rags, strode over to the car and leaned easily on the door.

"You back, Miss Anderson?" he said. "I just filled your tank yesterday."

"I thought I'd better have the oil checked," she replied primly.

He grimed and proceeded to check the oil—found it adequate. He returned to the car, but she was sitting and said, "I'm afraid there's nothing I can do for you today."

"Thank you, Mr. Nichols."

She was about to step on the start, hesitated, then turned to him and said softly, "Don, must we go on like this forever?" She placed a hand on his arm.

He grimed again, but with something of an effort. "You know how I feel about you, Elaine. But it won't work, and you know it."

"But why?" she cried, "Why won't it work? It's been done before."

"Certainly. Someone else has done it before. But I'm not like that way. When I make my pile it'll be my own—not something I've been donated."

She was on the verge of tears. "I can't help it if I've got money. It wasn't something I ordered. There's nothing I can do about it."

He softened suddenly. "I know, Elaine, and I'm not blaming you. I'm crazy about you but I can't say my way clear to doing anything that about it. There's always been that movement in me. I just can't do those things, not your fault and not mine. I'd give anything if only you were penniless. But you've got more money—you've got millions. I'd always have the feeling that people were referring to me as the man who married Elaine Anderson."

"Must our lives be ruined by your pride?" Elaine restrained her tears, tossed her head back—she had some pride, too.

"I make enough out of this gas station," he continued, "to support a wife—and a family. We'd get married right on that basis—and that basis only."

Her lips set stubbornly. "Goodbye, Mr. Nichols." She stepped on the starter, steered the flashy car out into the road, where it soon streaked out of sight.

Don hurried back into the station, kicked an empty oil can and sent it clattering against the wall. Before he had time to do more damage the bell rang, indicating a car was pulling up. He went back to the pumps.

He was unable to keep his eyes from the young woman he could think only of Elaine's lovely face and how much he wanted her. Old Moneybags Anderson, he thought, why did he have to have such a beautiful daughter. Life would have been just as good without the extra except there was no one for him without Elaine—and he could not have Elaine because she was an heiress. Someone else could marry an heiress, but not Don Nichols. He would make his own way in life, Elaine or no Elaine. Finally, when it was nearing dawn, he fell asleep.

—By—
MARTIN MILBURN

He felt cool and, but better, in the morning. It was an unhappy decision but he had made up his mind. He could not have Elaine and that was all there was to it.

It was after shaving, while he was drying off his clean, shining face in the mirror, that the thought came to him. Of course, why hadn't he thought of it before? Suddenly it took on a rosy hue. It might not work but there was no harm in trying. He rode to the station with a song on his lips.

He stopped at a week before Elaine showed up at the station. She had gotten over her anger and could not stay away. Don advanced to the car with a cheery smile. "How are you, Elaine?"

She said nothing, looked at him questioningly. "Elaine," he said, "Will you marry me?"

Her jaws dropped. For a moment she could not find words. Then she leaned over and felt his forehead. "Are you sure you want all right, Don?"

"I feel just fine, just fine."

She closed her eyes and counted to ten, then opened them and asked, "Now would you mind repeating what you just said?"

"I said, will you marry me?"

And all she could say was, "Oh, Don."

After the ceremony was over, they rode out into the country in Don's car. It was evening and Elaine leaned happily on Don's shoulder. A justice of the peace had performed the ceremony, and no one, as yet, knew about it.

They parked by a little, curving stream, and Elaine whispered, "I'm glad your pride didn't keep you from me."

"Yes, it would have been awful."

"Marriage," she declared, "Is a partnership. We're partners, aren't we?"

"You bet." His eyes were closed; he was drunk in the nearness of her.

"Well," she persisted, "Since we're partners, what you've got is mine, and what I've got is yours."

"You bet." Her eyes were closed; he was drunk in the nearness of her.

"Well," she persisted, "Since we're partners, what you've got is mine, and what I've got is yours."

"Because we haven't enough money."

"You," he interrupted, "Have nothing."

"What do you mean?"

He took a deep breath. This was it, he thought. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"You do, he said, and I'll cut her off without a cent. So there you are—you cut off without a cent."

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight naval battles.

For a long time she said nothing. Then she snuggled close to him. "I want you to go to your father, holding him in his gentle manner, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked like hell. I told him I was going to marry you."

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

"ROLE NOT ALTERED"

PORT ARTHUR,

The Blairmore Public Library

Reopen Saturday, September 25

and will be open each week as follows:

Wednesdays
4 to 8 p.m.

Saturdays
3 to 5; 6 to 8 p.m.

Yearly Subscriptions are:

Adult:	Resident	$1.00
	Out of town	$2.00
Children and High School		25¢

"fresh up" with Seven-Up!

3 WAYS TO A SMOOTH RUNNING FARM

Your separator, running at extremely high speed, needs a special oil to maintain steady lubrication and prevent wear and noise resulting from vibration. Imperial Cream Separator Oil is scientifically made to protect the close-fitting bearings of your separator in summer heat and especially in winter cold when ordinary oils tend to congeal.

Imperial Penetrating Oil is especially useful on such jobs for loosening rusty nuts and bolts. It is also valuable for curing squeaks and stiffness in automobile, wagon and carriage springs. It works its way between tightly fitting metal surfaces, dissolves gummy substances and gives real lubrication.

Powdered mica is one of the ingredients in this high quality axle grease that provides smooth operation for wagons, spindles, hubs, etc. A thin film is effective and long lasting — lubricating even when the spindle appears dry. When you buy axle grease be sure it's "Mica".

These and numerous other Imperial products needed on the farm are available from your Imperial Oil dealer or agent.

IMPERIAL OIL LIMITED

Farm Division

Local and General Items

Men can only learn as fast as their humility will let them.

It's not more plans we need but more application of the plans we have.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galvin and Henry visited Montana over the Labor Day week end.

Mr. Dennis Fleming left on Saturday for Edmonton where he is attending St. Joseph's Seminary.

Miss Frances Misson left on Sunday night for Idaho where she will continue her music studies.

Miss Leah Molemberg of the local telephone exchange staff was a visitor to Pincher Creek on Tuesday.

Mrs. F. Padgett has returned to her home in Bellevue after spending a six-month vacation with relatives in England.

Mr. H. Monks of Bellevue has returned to his home, having spent a three-month vacation visiting relatives in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kennard (nee Dorothy Campo) and son were Blairmore visitors for a week, guests of Mr. and Mrs. V. Smaniao.

Misses Margaret Boutry and Annie Hvizdos of Bellevue left recently for Calgary where they will be nurses-in-training at the Holy Cross hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Culham left on Tuesday for Ontario on a business trip. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson will occupy the Culham home during their absence.

Bill Noton, of Coleman, was rushed to Calgary two weeks ago and admitted to isolation hospital suffering from poliomyelitis, where he was immediately placed in an iron lung.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Wasnock of Port Angeles, Wash., arrived in Blairmore this week and will spend a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Angus McDonald.

Due to ill health, Mrs. Larbaletier has resigned from her post at the Blairmore public library. She has been the librarian for quite a number of years and has enjoyed every moment of it.

COMMUNICATION

Coleman, Alberta. Editor, The Graphic, Sir:

In a recent issue of The Lethbridge Herald there appeared an account of the musical activities of teachers and pupils of the Crows' Nest Pass. Earlier in the year, music lovers in the Pass heard of the success of these pupils in the festival held in Lethbridge. The writer wonders if it would not be possible for local people to hear these students perform at a festival such as was held in Blairmore until restrictions resulting from war conditions made it impractical.

There are in this district boys and girls who have been taking music lessons for several years, but who have had few if any opportunities to appear in public. This is another reason that a festival should be held in the Pass, providing an incentive for these young people to continue their studies.

Then, too, an event of this nature is always good publicity in addition to maintaining the reputation in musical circles which this district has so justly earned, and fostering an interest in the cultural side of life.

The writer feels sure that there are quite a few who would be willing to contribute some effort to the organization of such a festival in conjunction with the committee already existing, but whose numbers, it is understood, have in recent years been depleted. Could that committee be persuaded to take some action in this connection, provided that assistance in the work were forthcoming.

Yours truly,

D. M. DUNCANSON.

Mrs. Bert Shannon and children were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Dorenzo, at Calgary.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Don Landdon (nee Stella Max) on Monday, August 30, a son, Bruce Chester.

Mr. Phil Switzer of Calgary is visiting for a few days in Blairmore the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Switzer.

Misses Bertha Mieli and Alice Chappell of Banff, Alberta, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Riedlaki this week.

Miss Natalie Minunzie, Blairmore's gifted mezzo-soprano, will be the opening guest artist of Central United Church, September 29, when the Women's Musical Club opens its 38th season at Calgary.

KITCHEN STOVE FOR SALE

McClay Kootenay Range No. 9 in perfect condition. Anyone interested in a good stove come and see it or phone 136n. Mrs. A. F. Karliner, Hillcrest, Alberta.

The Ladies Aid of the BLAIRMORE UNITED CHURCH will hold a

Bazaar

IN THE CHURCH AUDITORIUM

Wednesday, Nov. 3

TEA 3 TO 5:30 P.M.

HOME COOKING APRONS
AND FANCY WORK

EVERYBODY WELCOME

EXCEL BUILDERS' SUPPLY CO.

*Everything for a Building

Building
Contractors

Phone 263 Coleman

WANTED, to Rent, House, three or more rooms, Apply ice maker, at Bellevue Arena.

WANTED—Horses for Fox Meat; 16 per pound. Contact JOE JACOB, Hillcrest, Alberta. [P9f]

"KLEEREX"—over 20 years a dependable family remedy for skin ailments—Psoriasis, Eczema, Pimples, Herpes, Ringworm, Impetigo, Ulcers, Burns, Barber's Itch. Two strengths—medium, strong. Two sizes—59c, $1.09. At all druggists.

MEN! DON'T TAKE CHANCES! Be safe. Guard your health. Hygienic supplies (rubber goods), mailed in absolute secrecy without embarrassment. First-class merchandise. Price $1.00 per dozen, mailed one hour after receiving order. The Grab Trading Co., 1275 Queen St. West, Toronto, Canada.

PARTICULAR ABOUT coffee? Then try Maxwell House. It contains choice Latin-American coffees. Expert Blending combines them all in a superb Maxwell House blend that has extra flavor.

SAWMILL Equipment

"Little Giant" Portable Sawmills with 3 sizes in carriages. "Little Giant" Edgers for 2- and 3-saw arrangement, and the "Little Giant" Improved 4-sided ball-bearing Planer complete with heads, knives, belts and shaving exhaustor.

IN STOCK AND READY TO SHIP

We carry a complete line of Dodge Steel Split Pulleys, Steel Belt Lacing, Ball Bearings, Saws, and Power Units, both Gasoline and Diesel; Truck Winches, Boomers, Power Take-offs and Steel Cable.

Machinery Depot Ltd.
1029-30 Tenth Avenue West
CALGARY
Alberta

Now - more people
call for
"CALGARY"
than ever before
in its history of 56 years.

A Product of
CALGARY BREWING & MALTING CO. LTD.